

Bath & North East Somerset Council

Enjoy free admission to the Fashion Museum

Visitors to Bath & North East Somerset Council's Fashion Museum can enjoy free admission from Monday 9 to Friday 27 January 2012.

People can take in the following exhibits at no extra charge to the normal Assembly Rooms ticket (£2 for adults or free for children under 16):

- Behind the Scenes: Historic Fashion
- Dress of the Year displays
- A sixteenth-century court dress (a gem of the museum's collection)
- Ladies' corsets and crinolines to try on
- 17th century gloves from The Glove Collection Trust
- Replica Victorian sporting dress for children to try on
- Clarke's Cabinets of Cures – art installation by Mark Clarke, inspired by and including objects from the Fashion Museum
- Top Trends, Autumn/Winter 2011/2012
- 20th century daywear.

Of the Fashion Museum's three galleries, the first gallery and part of the third will be closed from 9 to 27 January to prepare for the museum's next exhibition, Sport and Fashion, opening on Saturday 4 February. However there is still a lot to enjoy for free.

Joint saver tickets for the Roman Baths and Fashion Museum purchased at the Roman Baths between Monday 2 and Sunday 8 January will be valid until Sunday 5 February 2012.

The Fashion Museum is open daily from 10.30am to 4pm (exit 5pm). For more information visit www.fashionmuseum.co.uk or call 01225 477789.

Residents are reminded that as both the Fashion Museum and Roman Baths are managed by Bath & North East Somerset Council, entry is free all year round to local residents on production of a Discovery Card.

Signing up for a Discovery Card is free and easy to do. Simply take proof of address and ID along to the Roman Baths main entrance hall, Riverside in Keynsham or The Hollies in Midsomer Norton and a card will be issued to you, valid for three years. To find out more visit www.bathnes.gov.uk/discoverycard, email discoverycard@bathnes.gov.uk or call 01225 477785. Alternatively you can get an information leaflet by sending an A5 stamped addressed envelope to Discovery Card, Pump Room, Stall Street, Bath BA1 1LZ.
